

STRAUS MEYERS LLP — CONFIDENTIAL CASE INTAKE

Matter: Reyes v. Brightway Logistics, Inc.

Case No.: 37-2024-00098123-CU-PA-CTL

Court: Superior Court of California, County of San Diego

Responsible Attorney: Andrew S. Meyers, Esq.

Adverse Party: Brightway Logistics, Inc.

Client

Client Name: Maria Reyes

Client Address: 1840 Juniper Street, San Diego, CA 92103

The Incident

Date of Incident: March 14, 2024

Location: the intersection of 5th Avenue and Harbor Drive,
San Diego, California.

On the date above, our client Maria Reyes was lawfully crossing in the marked crosswalk when a delivery truck owned and operated by Brightway Logistics, Inc. failed to yield and struck her. The driver was making a right turn against the signal. A police report was filed at the scene and a witness, Daniel Cho, provided a statement corroborating our client's account.

Injuries

Injury Description: cervical strain and a fractured left wrist.
Our client also reported persistent headaches and reduced range of motion in the neck for several weeks following the collision.

Treatment

Treating Facility: Scripps Mercy Hospital
She was transported by ambulance, underwent imaging, and the fracture was set and casted. She completed a course of physical therapy through May 2024.

Damages

Medical Expenses to date: $42,318.55
Anticipated Future Treatment Costs: $8,500.00
(estimated hardware-removal procedure and follow-up therapy)

Liability is strong: signal-controlled intersection, independent witness, and a police report assigning fault to the Brightway driver. Recommend proceeding with a settlement demand.
